High Point Bank Acquires Robins & Weill Insurance Agency

We are very pleased to announce that Robins & Weill Incorporated has joined the High Point Bank family of companies effective May 30, 2008.

High Point Bank has been a premier financial institution in the triad since 1905, offering insurance services for more than 100 years. Robins & Weill has been in business since 1911. Both agencies offer a wide range of insurance services including personal policies, business policies, health insurance, and life insurance. Currently High Point Bank offers insurance through their wholly owned subsidiary Argus Insurance; Robins & Weill will now be a welcomed addition to the company's insurance division. While Argus currently services High Point, Winston-Salem, Kernersville and Eden, we will continue to operate under the Robins & Weill name in Greensboro, Asheboro, and Siler City.

"High Point Bank's insurance division has been providing insurance services to High Point and the Triad for more than 100 years," said Robert L. Davis III, President of Argus. "To add another established insurance group to our family provides our customers with a better range of services and more agents to serve our growing client base."

"I am pleased that Robins & Weill has joined the High Point Bank family of companies," said Charles L. Weill, Jr., President of Robins & Weill. "Their solid history and commitment to service made this the perfect fit for our two companies."
